FRPI maintains or assumes ownership of copyrights on any and all products provided, whether or not provided to Customer as work for hire or derivative works. Customer may only use FRPI products for purposes Customer specifically engaged FRPI’s services to perform, as described within a written accepted Customer purchase order.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. Products are provided in good faith, where professional opinions and advice are offered for informational purposes only. Accordingly, the Customer and Other Parties recognize that there may be errors and omissions in such industry standards, specifications, publications, media, testing, inspection, reports and other products provided, relied upon or prepared by FRPI or any of its laboratories and appointed third party consultants or inspectors. FRPI and Customer agree that FRPI will provide additional service to correct and alleviate situations created by errors and omissions. FRPI and Customer further agree that FRPI providing these services is the full limit of FRPI’s liability in these matters, of which effort shall not exceed value of items sold.

In no event shall FRPI be held liable for any legal, consequential, incidental, special or indirect damages or losses of Customer arising out of products offered or provided by FRPI, including but not limited to matters such as property damage, lost solutions, personal injuries, death or other special, indirect, consequential or compensatory damages claimed to result from or be caused by purchase, sale, use or failure of any FRPI products. The Customer

FRPI shall not be liable for delay in performance due to causes beyond its reasonable control, such as acts of Customer, God, civil or military authority, priorities, fires, strikes, floods, epidemics, quarantines, war, riots, delays in transportation or inability due to causes beyond its reasonable control to obtain labor, materials or production capacity.

The Customer’s exclusive remedy for breach of contract as to any term herein, and FRPI’s only liability for such breach, shall be replacement or repair of such products, which ever such remedy FRPI selects, and if FRPI elects to refund the purchase price of any such product or service, and so advise Customer, the Customer must return such goods, together with analyses, compilations, designs, studies, drawings, tapes or other documents prepared by Customer, which contain or otherwise reflect such information or the Customer’s review of or interest in such information, to FRPI on demand.

Customer agrees to compensate FRPI above and beyond proposal prices for changes in scope of work caused by unforeseen circumstances including but not limited to Customer inadequate and/or noncompliant work associated with their pursuit of FRPI certifications and/or consult, for which FRPI shall reasonably justify such changes and related price increases. It is expressly understood between FRPI, Customer and Other Parties that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any purchase order, the foregoing provisions shall prevail.

If any portion of this agreement is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be void or voidable under any applicable local or state law, such void or voidable provision shall not affect the balance of the agreement, which shall remain fully enforceable as if said void or voidable provision had been deleted by mutual consent of the parties.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT: Sales proposals include only such material and labor for products as specifically stated and when purchased against by Customer shall constitute the sole and entire agreement between parties and supersede all prior contemporaneous statements, promises, understandings or agreements, unless amendments to proposal and/or these terms and conditions of sale have been made in writing, are dually signed and attached thereto.
